WT Football Doesn't Pay, But It's Not Expected To

Varsity intercollegiate football at West Texas State University is not a paying proposition. But then, says WTSU financial vice president Hermas Miller, it is not a money-maker at any university.

The financing of football at WTSU is not viewed in business terms, with a profit-loss perspective, income weighed against expenditures, and like most other activities of the university, financing of football is one of those areas carried on from an academic budget viewpoint.

And, like the strictly academic budget prepared in Miller's office, the football budget is an animal of uncertainty, put together conservatively but without accurate income projections on hand.

Whereas Miller must prepare a biannual budget request at least two years before the budget will go into effect for the academic side of the institution, he must depend on much more nebulous factors than just student enrollment to predict income for the football program.

He must, for example, predict ticket sales, contributions and student service fees. Those are the three sources from which funds come to pay for the football program at the university, the primary athletic activity at WTSU.

Each income source is, in its own right, a total uncertainty when it comes to budgeting, and two of the income sources depend solely on the answers to such questions as: Will the Buffaloes have a winning team this year? If so, will they draw a crowd? If they draw a crowd, will contributions from fans increase?

The other income factor — student service fees — is not quite as hard to predict. At least it's no harder to predict than the coming fall enrollment and Miller must predict that figure to an extent in his efforts to prepare the academic budget.

Other funds are also used to finance the football program at WTSU. Miller said funds received through the primary income sources are invested and the interest is considered an income source itself. The university can also receive such windfalls as an unexpected $34,000 which came in this year from the Missouri Valley Conference for television rights sold for MVC teams.

Concession money at the stadium also goes into the football income pool.

"We're scrounging every nickle we can to pay for it," Miller said.

That scrounging, however, does not include taxpayer money.

"Not one dime of tax money goes into intercollegiate athletics," Miller said, noting that tax money by law cannot be used for such purposes. "If it is I don't know about it and I'd better not find out about it."

Nor does money from the operation of the WTSU bookstore. But, here's where the income picture gets fuzzy.

WTSU Business Manager Clarence Thompson explained that in financial operation of the university, the various funds are lumped together with the tax money lumped on one hand and the various enterprises of the university lumped on the other.

Thus, he said, things such as the bookstore, the varsity athletics, the various other student service operations, are lumped together for ac-

Annex Hearing Set; Board Readies

A public hearing to assess reactions to annexation attempts by the Amarillo School District will be held at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 17 in the county courtroom in Randall County courthouse.

County Judge Woody Pond, who is ex officio school superintendent, announced the meeting time Tuesday. Canyon School Supt. Jerry Jacobs announced the meeting during a regular school board session Tuesday night.

Local school board members are expected to turn out in force for the hearing, called by the Randall County Board of School Trustees, a body which in recent years has concerned itself only with approving CISD school bus routes.

The county trustees will hold the meeting to hear public reaction to the proposal by a South Amarillo developer that about 50 acres of his land be annexed by the Amarillo School District. The land currently lies in the Canyon district.

Five residents in the 50 acre tract have filed suit against the county trustees in an effort to force them to allow the annexation. The suit also alleges several trustees were elected in an illegal manner.

County trustees have not promised they will make a decision on the annexation question even following the public hearing. They have been discussing the annexation for about a year and at one point asked the state attorney general for a ruling on their role in the question.

Canyon school board members have said on several occasions they oppose the annexation by Amarillo unless the Canyon district directly benefits from the action.

The local board has also met with the Amarillo school board, but the meeting proved fruitless.

Attempts by several South Amarillo developers to annex about 11 sections of Canyon school district property into Amarillo's district have subsided particularly since the developers sold their acreage to an area savings and loan firm, which has said it is pleased with the Canyon district.

The public is invited to the open hearing.

Federal Athletic Rule Changes Could Hurt Women, Watkins Says

Far-reaching federal regulations designed to give equal opportunities to women in the athletic field could, instead, work to the detriment of women, Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, West Texas State University president, has written in response to the proposals.

Watkins, in a letter to the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare, put forth several arguments against the implementation of proposed changes to Title IX of the HEW guidelines, changes which would restructure the university's athletic offerings if mandated.

Published in late June in the Federal Register, the proposals put forth by HEW would demand equal athletic opportunities for females. The proposals call for annual determination of sports which will be fielded, for schools to give an equal number of scholarships and equipment for athletic teams for men and women, and for integration of health and physical education classes.

Under the proposals, for example, if WTSU offered varsity football for men, it would have to field a women's team with equal equipment and an equal number of scholarships.

The university had until Oct. 15 to issue a response to the proposals. Responses from other university officials are to be gathered in Washington and the HEW guidelines are to be re-examined before presented for approval in final form.

Watkins said his letter focused on several sections of the proposals.

He pointed out, for example, that annual determination of which athletic sports would be scheduled and against whom would make scheduling a virtual impossibility for both men and women. Noting that in football particularly some teams are scheduled as much as five to six years in advance, Watkins said schedules would be impossible to work out.

Another point Watkins made in his letter was that the prohibition against separation of men and women in physical education classes could work to the detriment of the women students. Citing such classes as wrestling, Watkins said the proposals ignore the fact that women cannot compete physically with men in certain areas.

He said in his letter he feels the proposals ignore the fact that in certain sports, such as gymnastics, the nature of the sport is entirely different for men and women.

And, finally, Watkins said in the letter that if universities are expected to provide equal equipment, materials and scholarships for men and women athletes, very few, if any, universities will be able to bear the expense.

"They should know there's not an unlimited supply of money for funding intercollegiate athletic programs," Watkins said.

Watkins also "made it clear" WTSU is supporting women's athletic programs. In fact, the president said, the university supports women's athletics to a greater percentage extent than

Tax Statements Out This Week

Tax statements to collect more than $2.5 million to run governments in Randall County go out this week, and the tax roll for each governmental entity reflects the growth of the county in the past year.

Last year, the various governments collected about $2 million in taxes.

Conway Kuykendall, city school tax assessor-collector, said he will mail nearly 15,000 statements to local residents this week to collect $1.6 million to run the City of Canyon and the Canyon Independent School District this year.

Tax roll for the school district totals $1,313,135, up more than $100,000 over last year's roll. Last year, the school district roll was $1,174,000. Total 100 percent valuation in the district is $177.4 million with taxes due on $70 million of that amount.

The school district has budgeted for income of about $1.18 million during the fiscal year from taxation.

The city tax roll for this year is $325,428, a $6,000 increase over last year's $318,000 roll. Total 40 percent valuation of property in the city is $17.8 million.

The city's budget approved in April calls for income of $324,-

Hightower Says Tax Hike On Gas Wouldn't Help

An increased tax on gasoline prices to the consumer would be counter-productive in the fight against inflation and would hurt most those on fixed incomes, Congressional candidate Jack Hightower said this week.

Because of the American consumer's dependency on automobile transportation, a 10-cent tax increase on gasoline would simply add further fuel to the fires of inflation in a period when the government seems to be searching for a real solution to the inflation problem, Hightower said in an interview in Canyon during his rounds on the campaign trail.

Hightower, who is the Democratic candidate for the seat now occupied by Rep. Bob Price of Pampa, said he is discouraged by the apparent lack of action on the part of the federal government to curb inflation, which is eating at the American worker's income on a monthly basis.

The 10-cent additional tax on gasoline which has been eyed in President Ford's administration as one formula for curbing inflation, would not accomplish that at all, Hightower said.

"It would be counter-productive," he said. "It would hurt people on fixed incomes and businessmen and farmers would have to pass along the increased costs."

Because America is a mobile society which depends heavily on gasoline, most consumers would not decrease their purchases of gasoline with the added tax but would pay the increased costs and pass along the costs in higher prices for goods and services, Hightower believes.

Hightower also scoffed at proposals to de-regulate the nation's petroleum industry. The proposal was highlighted last weekend when California Gov. Ronald Reagan called for such a step in a speech for re-election of Price in Pampa.

Hightower said the cost of petroleum products is one factor contributing to inflation and de-regulation would simply spur ever higher prices. He indicated he is skeptical the major oil companies are not manipulating prices to the detriment of the American people.

"I can't see a 300 percent increase in fertilizer can be justified," he said. "Nothing has gone up 300 percent in raw products."

Hightower, who is currently a state senator, said he'd anticipated the President's summit conference on the economy, but has been disappointed with the input and outcome.

"I thought this was good and it made sense to get together the best minds on the subject and see

Bills Will Not Help CISD Funds

A number of bills calling for change in the financing of Texas' school systems are expected to be introduced in the Texas Legislature in January, and none of them are expected to give a financial break to the Canyon district.

School Supt. Jerry Jacobs spent 30 minutes Tuesday night enumerating the various state-level committees which have been studying school financing over the past two- to three-year period, but told School Board members he feels none of them

Her Son Was Lost To Football

I write with the purpose that what I have to share may be helpful to whom it may concern:

Several days before the two young men on Canyon's football teams were injured, a man knocked on my door whom I had not seen since he finished high school. He had been a teammate and best friend of our first son who was fatally injured in a local football game when he was a senior.

Another dollar for Kelly Forehand, injured CHS football player . . . spurs letter from local woman who lost a son on the playing field.

When during the course of our conversation this friend spoke Bill's name, his eyes filled with tears, and I assured him that our son could be paid no better tribute. For Sept. 22 marked the 24th anniversary of his fatal accident.

A Letter

That his friend had not forgotten brought to my memory a popular song dedicated to Bill's grieving teammates: "You Don't Have to be a Baby to Cry."

My heart was touched today as I saw jars and posters placed in local businesses by members of the Canyon High football team for money that will aid their stricken teammate. Years go by, but there will always be kind young hearts.

I know how injuries and fatalities in competitive sports can affect entire communities, yet I am convinced that these activities are basicly good.

Since Bill had two younger brothers, my husband and I were faced with questions that I feel sure are being asked today:

Is the game of football too rough?

Is it worth the risk of injury or death?

Is it not over-emphasized or glorified?

Should we permit our sons to play, or should it be their decision?

Does a student feel left out if he does not participate in competitive sports?

Because I lost a son does not make me an authority on whether a boy should or should not play football. But my husband and I found it easier to support and encourage our younger sons as they played throughout high school.

Before his fatality, Bill miraculously escaped injury in two serious automobile accidents. Four months earlier my only brother was killed instantly in an automobile accident after three years of combat in the South Pacific. There is life and death, but there is also hope and faith.

Perhaps there is a reason that your son should not play football. He may be more interested in intellectual studies or the fine arts. If this is true he should be given equal attention and due honor as he excells in these fine activities. Some students are not physically able to participate in competitive sports and every effort should be made to prevent their feeling of being "left out."

If your son has made the decision to play football, his best effort will be his greatest tribute to his injured teammate. If he decides not to play, I sincerely hope it is not because of your fear.

My sons are fathers of sons today. I care about their decisions. And I care about yours.

Prayerfully,
Mrs. Glenna Wilson

Amarillo Daily News reporter Jerry Graham complained in the Wednesday morning paper that there is no way to tell how Potter County commissioners vote on issues.

Jerry had a run in with Commissioner Thad Ansley.

I talked to Thad Wednesday. He described the bout as a tempest in a teapot and says it boils down to a vendetta with the Daily News reporter.

I told Thad whom I have known for many years that I think the people who elect him have a right to know how he votes and what he thinks on any given issue.

Thad said his vote is an open book and he or any other Potter County commissioner will be happy to tell any constituent how they cast their votes in court.

Legislative bodies chafe under provisions of the open meeting law.

Sometimes they go under ground with members visiting with each other and privately reaching concensus before they reach the meeting room.

This circumvents the open meeting law and the people's right to know. Some provision in the open meeting law should close this loophole so the public can be aware of not only how those in office vote but also of how decisions are reached.

Anything less than this is less than democracy.

Watergates are not made in Washington but are born in county court houses and city halls all over the nation.

People who start as minor county or city officials (witness Spiro Agnew) sometimes wind up as vice presidents and presidents. Harry Truman is a good example having served as a county judge in Missouri before becoming in succession, senator, vice president and eventually chief executive.

It's little wonder that coverup habits learned in lesser jobs sometimes ends in national disaster.

A mayor or county judge who flaunts the people's right to know just might be tempted to use the CIA or FBI to blunt an investigation not to his interests were he to rise to the presidency.

If the people sternly demand that their local officials operate strictly in the open, Watergates will be aborted long before their borning.

Right now he is the brightest star in the Panhandle's political future.

The South Plains seems likely to have its second speaker of the Texas House of Representatives in this generation.

Billy Wayne Clayton of Springlake appears destined to take over this job. Clayton is a good choice, in my opinion. He knows the problems of this area and is extremely interested in water, himself being an irrigation farmer.

Waggoner Carr of Lubbock served as speaker and then attorney general in the 1950s.

Mrs. Dolph Briscoe makes Texas a charming first lady.

If I had to pick between her and Nellie Connally for charm and graciousness in the mansion it would be a hard choice.

I probably would pick Jane Briscoe because being a male chauvinist, I appreciate the pure adoration on her face as she looks at her husband, who certainly is no John Connally when it comes to looks.

While the governor was making a very ho hum speech as you would expect at an appreciation dinner Tuesday night, Mrs. Briscoe hung onto his every word with her hands poised to applaud at the slightest excuse.

I noticed this early in the speech and then watched her closely through the rest of it. She reacted as though she was hearing the speech for the first time and I am convinced she was not play-acting.

Dolph Briscoe is a very wealthy man and I'm not talking about his cattle, his land, his banks and his seat in the governor's chair.

Voter Registration Deadline Saturday

Any qualified persons wishing to participate in the Nov. 5 general election must be registered by Saturday.

A voter registration application may be obtained at the Randall County tax assessor-collector's office in Canyon or South Amarillo. The application may be filed either in person or by mail.

A registration is valid for three years and is automatically extended for the secceeding three-year period by voting in a primary or general election. Consequently, many voters who have participated in prior elections need not make application to renew their registration.

Deadline for changing address on voting registration certificate is Oct. 31 for those registered in Randall County.

Voters wishing to cast an absentee ballot for the Nov. 5 general election may do so beginning Oct. 16.

The proper absentee voting procedure will depend upon each individual voter's situation.

Those persons who expect to be absent from the county on the day of the election may vote by personal appearance during regular office hours at the county clerk's office.

Those persons who expect to be absent from the county both during the time for voting by personal appearance and on election day can make application to the county clerk requesting that an absentee ballot be mailed to them at an address outside the county.

In addition, those persons residing within the county but unable to vote on election day due to sickness, physical disability, religious belief, or incarceration for less than a felony, can also make application to the county clerk requesting that an absentee ballot be mailed.

The absentee voting period for the Nov. 5 general election will continue through Nov. 1.

Bank Aids Scholarship Fund

The First National Bank of Canyon presented a $100 check to the West Texas State University Department of Military Science for their scholarship fund Sept. 26.

Making the presentation to Col. John Luke, new ROTC head, was John Childs, assistant vice president and former WTSU Army ROTC commander.

This fund provides a $50 scholarship to those freshmen enrolled in Army ROTC who meet the various eligibility criteria. These scholarships are awarded according to scholastic ability, extracurricular activities and need, according to Capt. Russell Moore, WTSU assistant professor of military science.

"Since the fund's inception in late 1970," Moore noted, "26 awards have been made on a competitive basis to deserving military science students."

Contributions to the Military Science Scholarship fund are tax-deductible, he added.

First Girl Is Admitted To Building Trades Program

"If I marry an engineer or someone who does not know how to do anything, I thought building trades would help," stated LaDeanna Piehl, junior student at Canyon High School.

Miss Piehl, better known to school friends as Plug, is the first girl student in the building trades course offered at Canyon High School. This is her first year in the program.

Harold Hagemeier stated that he had already decided not to allow Miss Piehl to become a part of the building trades program. Following a 30 minute interview, Hagemeier was impresses by her attitude and desire. He decided to allow her to take the course. Building trades students are chosen from applications submitted prior to the beginning of each school year. Only a limited number of students are allowed in the program.

Planning to stay in the program, Miss Piehl stated that she plans to attend college and hopes that her building trades skill will enable her to pay for college expenses.

Miss Piehl said that her interest in the building trades program began when she assisted her father, Bill Piehl, in building their home at #25 Country Club Drive in Hunsley Hills. She said that she has also helped him repair several rent houses that they own.

"I can do almost everything that the boys do except lift heavy objects," stated Miss Piehl. She said that at first everybody was surprised but now she is accepted.

Hagemeier stated that for a beginning student, Plug is starting out well.

Infrasound Discussed

"Lightning, Thunder, and Infrasound" will be the subject of a discussion by West Texas State University professor William Beasley Oct. 7 at 4 p.m. in Room 102 of the Science Center.

"Severe storms, especially those bearing tornadoes, sometimes emit acoustic waves known as infrasound, which may be detected by sensitive microbarographs as far away as 1,000 kilometers," Beasley said.

While it may seem plausible that lightning is the cause of infrasound, Beasley continued, the source appears to be related to storm dynamics during early stages of development.

"The motivation for research on severe-storm infrasound is the hope that understanding the infrasound generation mechanism will lead to a better understanding of the factors which differentiate severe storms from ordinary ones and therefore to a better forecasting of their time and place of occurrence," he concluded.

THE PISTOLS AND Petticoats Square Dance Club was represented at the Square Dance Jamboree in Red River, N.M. by Paul and Betty Ferguson. This gathering of square dance clubs is held annually when the leaves start turning.

Betty said that there were a few flakes of snow Friday evening, but that Saturday and Sunday were "shirt sleeve" weather. There were 50 squares for the Saturday night dance and Betty said they were a colorful sight and that the aspens were just beautiful.

County Advertises For Bids For Four New Typewriters

Randall County commissioners voted in a special called session Monday to advertise for bids for the purchase of four typewriters in an effort to comply with state law they ignored the week before.

"I would suggest and entertain a motion we rescind the order previously set out in the minutes and that we readvertise for bids," County Judge Woody Pond told commissioners Paul Lindsey and John Fulgenzi, only commissioners present for the called meeting.

Pond's call for the motion followed reading of the minutes from the commissioners' meeting of Sept. 23 during which the commissioners contracted with IBM for four typewriters at a cost of $648 each.

Fulgenzi moved the order be rescinded and Lindsey moved the county readvertise for bids for one typewriter for the district attorney's office, two for the district clerk's office and one for the county clerk's office.

Both motions passed.

"The reason," Judge Pond began following the motion, "there was no intent to violate the law. Our intention was to save the county some money."

At least two Texas civil statutes require that commissioners seek bids for certain supplies for county offices. Neither allow the commission to purchase outright $2600 worth of typewriters without advertising for competitive bids.

Article 1659, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, outlines the procedure commissioners must follow in purchasing supplies or equipment and says all such materials must be purchased after bids are taken.

Article 6716-1, Section 15, VACS, says virtually the same thing.

In other business during the brief Monday session commissioners heard a request from Sheriff Cliff Longest to hire an identification specialist to work in the Canyon office. Longest explained that he is using a deputy who could be making rounds in the county to man the office in Canyon. A tentative go-ahead was given, but the matter will be formally considered at this Monday's session.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton told commissioners he might have to spend as much as $2000 revamping the computer program for the Nov. 5 general election because a fifth political party has been allowed on the ballot.

Hutton said the Socialist Workers Party has been given ballot space in Texas and although there are no candidates in Randall County, he must revamp the county's ballot to allow for state-wide SWP candidates.

Commissioners gave tentative approval to the program change.

Tax. . .

900, according to City Manager George Loudder.

Randall County was pleasantly surprised by the tax roll formulated for this year by Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector. Commissioners struggled throughout the summer to balance a budget with an underestimated income figure. They approved a budget which showed expenditures running about $7,000 ahead of estimated income, but Mrs. Bruse's tally indicates the county may end up fiscal 1975 with a healthy surplus rather than a deficit for the first time in three years.

Mrs. Bruse has estimated the tax roll for this year at 747,266, with taxable value totalling $73,074,000. County commissioners had budgeted originally for an income of $674,000. Mrs. Bruse will send a total of nearly 50,000 statements to local residents.

This is the second year the county has operated through use of the computer center at West Texas State University to produce tax records, and apparently the tax office has encountered some problems in a change-over of computer operations. The tax statements, however, are expected to go out this week.

The South Randall County Hospital District, whose taxes are collected by the county, anticipates income from taxes of 116,000.

Residents who pay their school and city taxes in October are in for a healthy discount of 3 per cent. There is no discount in November or December and the taxes fall due by Feb. 1.

Those who do not pay their taxes to the city, county, hospital district or school district before Feb. 1, can expect to pay a penalty of 1½ per cent accumulated each month after that date.

On June 30, the taxes not collected by that time are moved into delinquent roll books and the penalty jumps to 3½ per cent per month until paid.

Football. . .

counting purposes in one ledger.

It is possible, then, he said, for interest earned on bookstore funds to be used to help finance football or other varsity athletics because the various student services are treated as one individual fund in the university operation.

Miller said as a practical matter no direct revenue funds from the bookstore are used to finance football.

The financial vice president said the football budget is prepared with income estimates and expenditure estimates, but that it is virtually impossible to predict the income.

Unlike businessmen, who prepare budgets with an eye to covering expenditures with anticipated income, the university does not, Miller said, look at the football program from that perspective. While officials hope the income generated by concessions, ticket sales, contributions and student service fees will cover the expenditures, funds still have to be found if they don't cover the outlay.

Football, then, is not operated as a business, generating its own income and expected to generate enough income to cover its expenditures, Thompson and Miller said.

In fact, they pointed out, very few of the student service type activities sponsored under the university produce income to cover expenditures. Thompson used as an example the university drama department productions, which produce losses which are absorbed through the enterprise funds of the university.

These auxiliary enterprises are operated, as they are in other universities, for the benefit of a certain number of students and because they are thought to contribute to an overall university environment, Thompson said. They are not viewed with the businessman's eye toward making a profit.

Nevertheless, officials at the university are making efforts to cut back expenditures in the athletic field.

Miller said the university budgeted about $334,000 for football last year and has budgeted about $380,000 for football this year.

"We won't spend that much," he said. "We're tightening up everywhere we can."

The books on last season have not yet been closed out, Thompson said, so no figures are available on how much income was generated.

"As a generalization, it takes some transfer from interest-bearing or surplus funds to make income equal expenditures," he said.

But, this year, officials are striving to make income from football more nearly equal the expenditures anticipated.

While officials say football is a definite part of the future of the university, they are worried over currently contemplated federal action which could make varsity athletics a thing of the past not only at WTSU but at other colleges.

Proposals from the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare which would make universities provide equal equipment and material for men and women athletes, or which would demand that women be allowed to play football, could raise the football ante to intolerable levels.

Director of Development Keith Winter, who along with Football Coach Gene Mayfield attended a conference on the HEW proposals last summer, said finances could be a major problem if the proposals are put into effect.

Under the HEW Title IX proposed changes, WTSU would either have to field two separate but equal teams — one for women and one for men — or would have to field only sports which allowed equal participation.

Hightower. . .

if they could bring forth a plan on paper," Hightower said. "My first disappointment was Ford's statement he wouldn't do anything until after the first of the year. If anything can be done by an executive order or change in law, Congress should recommend some proposals and the President should proceed immediately."

Hightower said a wait until after Jan. 1 can only lead to further economic problems.

"Doing nothing might be all right if governmental action hadn't precipitated the problem," he said.

Hightower said the economy, had it not been artificially manipulated by government, might have cooled itself off.

The candidate said in his travels around the vast congressional district he's found most people disturbed about the economy.

But, Hightower voiced his own doubts that the federal government can do anything about the economy. He said the government appears to be hamstrung by a vast bureaucracy which has grown up in the decades since World War II.

Congress, he charged, has abdicated its responsibility in lawmaking by passing skeleton bills to be filled in later by bureaucrats.

Rather than allowing the bureaucracy to run the government, Congress must be revamped in some manner to allow it to reassert its authority, he said.

Bills. . .

portend well for Canyon.

"I don't see any way they can change this but what we're going to get hurt some," Jacobs said.

He said he anticipates there will be moves in the legislature to force all school districts to assess property equally, but his outlook for the success was pessimistic.

Jacobs also anticipates moves to change the complicated formula for figuring out how much a school district can afford to pay out of its own pocket for education.

In all the committees now focusing on school finances, Jacobs said, there are several proposals which are common. All plans, for example, call for a change in the economic index formula for figuring a county's ability to pay, and all plans call for a uniform assessing program.

"There'll be a lot of fan-fare and talk on changing the school finance structure," he said, "but before they can change much they've got to start at the bottom."

Jacobs agreed it might take several years to work out a uniform tax assessing system whereby all school districts figure property values on the same basis.

Other legislation Jacobs anticipates includes a teacher pay raise and a duty-free teacher lunch period.

The superintendent said it is expected that emergency legislation precipitated by the governor's office could bring about $90,000 into the school district coffers after Jan. 1.

In other business Tuesday night, school board members issued an invitation to officials of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission to make a presentation to the board in the future. The PRPC has invited the school district to join the regional organization.

Jacobs and other board members said they couldn't figure out what benefits they might receive through membership, but they would be willing to listen to a presentation.

Board members also reviewed and approved their 1974 tax roll of $1.3 million.

Economy Course Set

"Investment Opportunities in Today's Economy" is a five-week course oriented to the practical side of investments to be offered each Thursday night beginning Oct. 17 at West Texas State University.

"Many people in today's society have experienced sharp declines in the market values of their common stocks and bonds," WTSU Business Professor Jerry Miller, the course instructor says.

"In fact, many of these professionally administered funds have lost from 50-75 percent of their values during the past six years."

Miller maintains, however, that "today's market offers greater investment opportunities than at anytime during the past 20 years" only the "need for selectivity is greater today than in the past.

"This five-week course will assist investors in taking advantage of the attractive markets that lie ahead," he says.

The topics to be included are the short and long-term outlook for stocks and bonds, analysis of individual common stocks, evaluation models for common stocks and warrants, portfolio packages suited to various investors and technical charting for common stocks and commodities.

Dr. Miller's classes will meet five weeks from 7-9:30 p.m. each Thursday night beginning Oct. 17 in Room 101 of the University Complex South. The cost is $50 per person with advance registration requested. A minimum deposit of $10 can be made, with the balance due on Oct. 17.

Contact the WTSU Business Administration Department telephone number 656-2317 for registration information.

does the University of Texas.

For the current year, the university has allocated $27,000 to women's programs. That compares to about $50,000 allocated by UT, a college with six times the enrollment.

Last year the university spent only about $2300 for women's athletics and Watkins said "these girls have a friend in me."

"We're giving as much as we currently feel we can and we're continually trying to emphasize the area," he said. "We'll continue to try to build on that start."

Census To Eye Home Upkeep

Questions on expenditures for the upkeep and improvement of residential properties will be asked of a sample of households in this area by Bureau of the Census interviewers next week.

The survey is taken four times yearly to provide a continuing measure of this segment of America's economy. The sample of households here are among the approximate 6,000 throughout the United States that will be asked about additions, alterations, maintenance, and repairs to their homes.

During 1973 total expenditures for the upkeep and improvement of all residential properties were estimated at $18.9 billion, an increase of 8 percent over 1972. Homeowners alone spent $11.5 billion for upkeep and improvements in 1973.

Information reported to the Census Bureau is held in strict confidence by law. The reports published are in terms of totals only. No information that would identify any individual or household is ever released.

Buffs Try Non-Conference Southern Mississippi Saturday

Coming off last weeks 41-7 win over the Wichita State Shockers, the WT Buffaloes will begin play outside their conference schedule as they face the Southern Mississippi Golden Eagles Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. in Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

Before a crowd of 8,500, the Buffaloes blasted Wichita. The Buffs scored twice in each of the last three quarters to erase an early 7-0 Shocker lead. Tully Blanchard threw three touchdown passes, including two to split end Tracy Dickson, to pace the offensive explosion. A crowd of 11,000 is expected to be on hand for Saturday's game.

Last week, Southern Mississippi was defeated by rival Mississippi in a 20-14 game.

Southern Mississippi is 1-2 for the season. Both losses were consecutive losses to area rivals Alabama, 52-0, and Mississippi. West Texas State will enter the game with a 2-1 record. Having wins over Drake and Wichita State. Their only loss of the season was at the hands of Jim Germany and company of New Mexico State.

USM and WT began their series in 1956 with a WT 20-13 win. Southern Mississippi has outscored WT 225-74 in the one-sided rivalry which has seen the Maroon shut out four times.

Last year the Golden Eagles scored once in every period for a 28-0 win in Kimbrough Stadium. Returning USM quarterback Jeff Bower topped the scoring with a 15-yard pass to Willie Thicklen in the last period. WTSU gained only 260 yards total offense, compared to 344 for USM.

P. W. Underwood has returned to his school of undergraduate days as has Gene Mayfield, head coach at WT. Underwood owns a 26-29-2 record as head coach of the Golden Eagles. Underwood, a star lineman at USM and in the Canadian League, succeeded to the USM helm in 1969 after assistant posts at Southern Mississippi and Tennessee.

West Texas emerged from the Wichita win in good shape. Trainer Ed Day reported only safety Scott Hindman and cornerback Mike Williams with contusions to their left elbow and right knee, respectively, but neither is expected to miss the USM game. To further brighten the picture, safety Mike Lozano is making good progress with his hamstring injury and may play against USM. Offensive tackle John Jacobi, injured in the New Mexico State game as was Lozano, will still be out with his severe ankle sprain.

Tully Blanchard, the starter at quarterback in the Maroon's first two games, did not get the nod against Wichita. Mike Wartes started, but it was Blanchard who got the offense started in the second quarter. The junior from San Antonio completed only three passes, but all went for touchdowns. "I never have deviated from the feeling that Tully is a better balanced quarterback than Wartes," Buff Coach Mayfield said Sunday. "We just had a bad game last week, referring to New Mexico State, and I think not starting against Wichita helped him. Looking at the films, I was more pleased with his throwing than I had been."

For a 9.2 sprinter, Tracy Dickson had not been the offensive threat that Buff fans had expected in WT's first two games. "I'm sure that in his eyes he was disappointed in his season," Mayfield explains. "He was open a lot in the first two games, but we could never get the ball to him. He just kept running excellent patterns at full speed." The diligence paid off with two touchdown receptions, one on a 43-yard bomb and the other from 15 yards out. In addition, he gained 13 yards on a split end reverse that set up a fourth quarter score.

WT's secondary will be facing a top-notch aerial threat in USM's Jeff Bower. Bower has accounted for all three of the Golden Eagles' touchdowns this year with his passing. The junior from Roswell, Ga., has completed 73 percent of his passes for three TDs and one two-point conversion. These are the only points that Southern Miss. has generated during the entire season thus far.

This will be the fourth week for the secondary to worry about a strong passing game.

Both teams boast of great tight ends. WTSU's Merced Solis moved into seventh place in the Buffs' all time receiving standings with his two receptions against Wichita. His career total of 51 catches also puts him in reach this week of catching Charles Henderson for third place. Henderson had 56 catches in his career while Mercury Morris, Jerry Richardson and Daryl Wynn each grabbed 54 passes as Buffs. For USM, senior John Sawyer has been Bower's favorite target this year with 11 receptions for 179 yards and two touchdowns. In his career, he has caught 54 also.

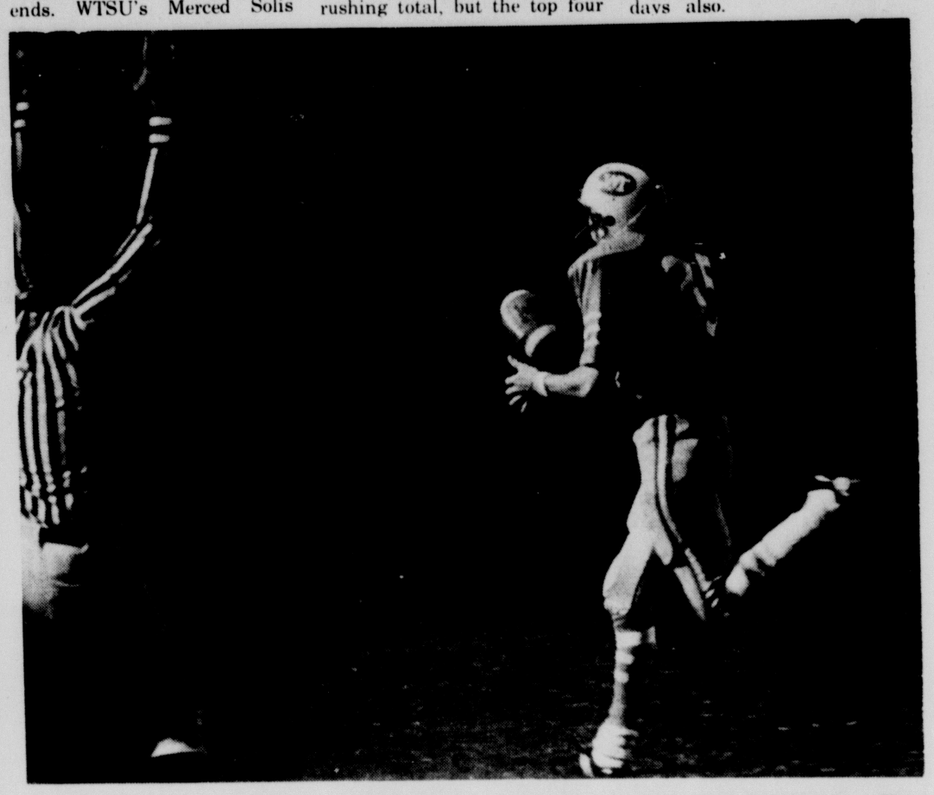
Every game seems to add more running stars to the WT Wishbone offense. Against Wichita State, it was San Angelo sophomore Eddie Richardson who led the infantry with 83 yards in nine carries and a 24-yard touchdown run. Junior Ricky Rice scored his first touchdown as he averaged six yards on his eight carries, and freshman Frederick Turner capped the scoring with a nine-yard run to paydirt. WT doesn't have any one runner with a great rushing total, but the top four halfbacks average almost six yards a carry.

The Missouri Valley Conference is not helping its reputation against outside foes this year. The record against non-conference opponents is a dismal 2-12 with New Mexico State, undefeated in four games, picking up the only outside wins. Last week, the Aggies ripped U.T. Arlington 42-14 but other than WTSU's league win, they were the Valley's only winners.

Two MVC contests highlight this week's schedule. Drake hosts North Texas State and Wichita State hosts Louisville as all four teams look for their first wins.

The Buffs take to the road against the University of Idaho in Moscow. This will be the first of three road games for the Maroon. Last week Idaho lost to Villanova 15-7.

Other Buff opponents last week's results are: Lamar crunched North Texas State 27-7, Arkansas blew past league favorite Tulsa 60-0, Cincinatti edged Louisville 7-6. Other non-conference opponents had bad days also.



Eddie Richardson, No. 35, sophomore halfback for the WTSU Buffaloes, crosses the goal line scoring one of the Buffaloes' touchdowns during Saturday night's game. This was a familiar scene for the Buffs as they downed the Wichita State Shockers 41-7.

WT Tennis Doubles Team Makes Good Showing

"I was really happy with Nunez and Johnson," stated David Kent, coach for the WT tennis team.

Samuel Nunez and Steve Johnson formed a doubles team that beat the number one seated SMU team and Texas number one team before losing the Trinity in the Midland Open Tournament held in Midland last week end. This was the best showing that a WTSU doubles team had made in the tournament. Nunez is a junior college transfer from Mexico City. Johnson is a sophomore from Reno, Nevada.

Also during the tournament, Todd Reed, a freshman from Win Field, Kansas, defeated singles players from TCUand Texas A & M Univeristy before being defeated in a tough match against David Barnsted of Southern Methodist University.

6th Grade Tops Gene Howe Team

The sixth grade footballers of Canyon No. 2 captured their third victory with a 38-0 whallopping of Gene Howe No. 2 in a game played in Canyon Sunday afternoon.

Capitalizing on their touchdown efforts were David Johns with 2 TDs, Tom Nix, Kendall Walling and Kyle Sims with one TD each. Points-after touchdown accounted for the remainder of the scoring.

Bill Bridge is coach for the Canyon team with Johnny Archer and Joe Robinson, assistant coaches.

The Canyon No. 2 team will travel to Glenwood Park in Amarillo this evening, Thursday, at 7 p.m. for a game with Ridgecrest No. 2.

Eagles Optimistic About Friday's Game

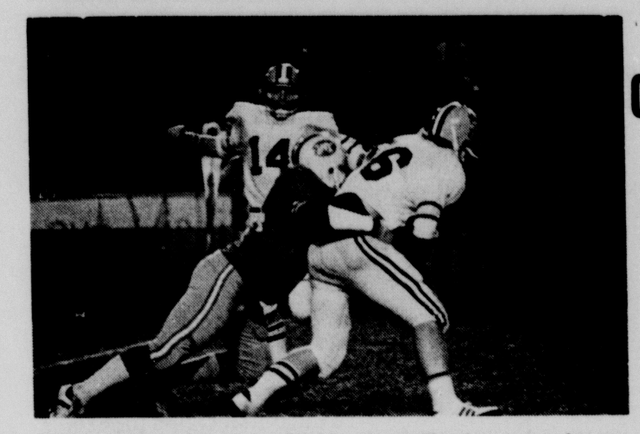
Tracy Dickson, senior split end for the Buffaloes, catches a Tully Blanchard pass for a touchdown. The Buffaloes went on to defeat the Shockers 41-7.



Buffalo defense held the Wichita State Shockers to only one touchdown during last Saturday night's game. Bruce Davis, senior middle linebacker, was named defensive player of the week for the Missouri Valley Conference following the game. Davis was credited with 15 unassisted and six assisted tackles.

Limping slightly from the 14-6 defeat last week at the hands of the Hereford Whitefaces, the Canyon Eagles are optimistic about the outcome of this weekend's game against Pampa.

Following a 3:30 pep rally on the square here, the Eagles will board the bus at 4 p.m. for their treck to Pampa. The game begins at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Ron Mills feels that Pampa has not faced as tough a schedule as has Canyon. Pampa is undefeated going into Friday night's game. Both Canyon and Pampa have played Hereford. Pampa played Hereford earlier in the year. When Canyon played Hereford, the Eagles played a club with more experience and one which had jelled during their earlier games. Hereford lost to Pampa primarily due to seven fumbles.

The Eagles will go without the services of Jimmy Foil. Foil suffered a slight brain concussion from an accident at home.

Steve McCormick and Adrian Foil missed practice Monday due to a stomach virus. Terry Hayhurst sprained his ankle during pre-game activities at Hereford and Rusty Holladay is still hobbling on a hurt ankle.

Coach Mills stated that Mark Jackson has been moved to an offensive tackle position. Mills said that Jackson would be playing some defense but would spend most of his playing time on offense.

Two sophomores will have a chance to show their ability during the Pampa game. Elliot Berry and Brad Bowers will play defensive end slots. Also joining them this week will be Ronnie Howe. Howe, a sophomore, will be playing at linebacker.

Mills said that Howe is a real hitter. He stated that Howe fouls up a lot of plays during practice sessions and the Eagle coaches want to give him a chance to foul up the undefeated Harvesters.

Coach Mills said that Steve McCormick, Bob Lee and Wayne Robinson gave a strong effort during last week's game. Drew Hetzler was also commended by the head coach for his play as a defensive lineman. Hetzler, a sophomore, took the position of Kelly Forehand last week.

Mills feels that his defensive team did a good job last week. He said that the defense gave up only one touchdown. The second TD for Hereford came against the punting team.

According to Don Beck, head coach for the Perryton Rangers, Pampa has one of the best teams he has played against in years.

Pampa, another 4-A school on Canyon's tough schedule, has a large and fast team that will meet the 3-A Canyon Eagles.

Pampa will keep the Eagle defense on its toes during the contest as the Harvesters use both the Wishbone and the double wing type offenses. Mills stated that when Pampa is wanting long yardage they shift out of the Wishbone, used by the Harvesters for ball control, to the double wing.

Pampa's field general will be Chuck Quarrels, a 5-6, 135 pound senior. Quarrels led the team last year as a junior. Mills said that Quarrels is one of the quickest quarterbacks around.

Quarrels is the only one in the backfield under 160 pounds. The other backs according to Mills are big and fast. Those to watch include Rick Leverick, Coy Frie, Dave Smith and Tim Thornburg.

The Harvester defense will be led this year by Dave Rasmussen, a 6-2, 195 pound defensive tackle. Rasmussen is a senior.

Cowboys Suffer Loss

The Canyon Cowboys suffered their second loss of the season at the hands of Belmar as Belmar downed the Cowboys 36-6. The Cowboys now have a one win, two loss record.

The lone Cowboy touchdown came on a 45 yard pass from David Harbin to Robbie Owen.

Ralph Carroll suffered a sprained right arm but should be back in action in two weeks.

The Cowboys will play again Sunday, October 6 in Canyon at 2 p.m. They will be going against Western Plateau.

Fund Growing

Students at Canyon High School and Canyon Junior High School will take their lunch to school today and give their lunch money to the Kelly Forehand Fund. The fund grows each day with contributions from local and area residents.

The fund at the First National Bank had on account Wednesday morning $2271.81. The West Texas State Bank had $28.

Members of the Canyon High School student council held a bake sale and car wash last Friday. They raised $540 at the bake sale and $405 at the car wash.

Members of the Eagle football team have placed jars in local businesses to assist in collecting money for the fund.

Saturday students at CHS will have a bike-a-thon. Students will ride bicycles from Canyon to Umbarger and back again with sponsors paying them for the ride. The money received will go into the fund.

Other projects sponsored by the student council include a basketball game between the varsity boys and the men faculty members, students addressing circulars at Montgomery Wards and Kelly Forehand Day November 1. A date for the basketball game has not been set. On Kelly Forehand Day, a collection will be taken at the football game and the seniors will raise the prices of the programs.

Canyon Booster Club will sponsor a flag football game October 22. On October 25, the booster club and the Canyon Boxing Club will sponsor a boxing match in the WT fieldhouse. The fieldhouse will be used at no cost. A painting by Jim Ward and one by D. Crow will also be raffled soon. The proceeds from these events will go to the fund.

Area high schools and junior high schools are also donating to the fund.

Forehand was injured in the Canyon Eagle-Caprock Longhorn football game played September 19 in Amarillo. He remains in serious condition at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Student Seminar On Smoking-Alcohol Set At WT

High school and junior high school students from across the Panhandle will attend a seminar on alcohol and drugs at West Texas State University October 5.

The seminar, sponsored by WTSU, PTA, Texas Department of Public Health's Heart and Cancer Division, American Lung Association of Texas, National Alcohol Council's Allied Youth Group, Amarillo Alcohol and Drug and Top Of Texas Alcohol and Drug, will train students to go back to their high schools and junior high schools to train their fellow students in the affects of alcohol and drugs.

The program is an expansion of the program last year which involved students in the study of the affects of smoking. Fifteen to 20 school districts were represented last year during the seminar.

According to Dr. Myron Dees, coordinator for the program, in the past smoking and alcohol were acquainted with adult behavior. He said that the purpose of the seminar is to show that it is juvenile in reality.

The study will center on the effects of smoking and alcohol on the health of the individual.

Students from Canyon Junior High who will be attending include Jack Crager, Tracy Byrd, Terry Rudd, Terry Davis, Ron Eller, Eddie Clement, Linda Plain, Larry Brown, Terry Miller, Kim Wallace, Suzie Wright, Steve Thompson, Janice Dillehay, Glenda Williams, Cindy Stallings, Jubel Gillis, Jeff McKay, Rhonda Moore, Dian Bonifield, Brent Anderson, Todd Kent, Staci Lyles, Robin Hoover, Melanie Brooks, Tanya Stallings, Tricia New and Steve Zanchettin.

Sponsor for the group will be Mrs. Ada Crager.

Homecoming Plans Set

Plans are already underway for this year's homecoming festivities at West Texas State University. The event is scheduled for the weekend of November 2, when the Buffaloes square off against Lamar Tech.

According to alumni association executive director Lee Webb, this year's 50th anniversary group is the class of 1924. They'll be the honored guests of the association during the annual fall observance on the Canyon campus.

The homecoming carnival that has proved so popular over the past two years will be the focus of the on-campus celebration again this year. The carnival gives individual student groups an opportunity to earn some money for their organizations while bringing midway-style fun to the student body and returning exes.

The carnival will open for business at noon on November 1st and run through midnight. Awards will be handed out for the most original booths and games, which last year included the traditional barrel ride, pie and egg throwing, and even a dunking board.

The highlight of that evening will be the crowning of the new Miss WTSU. During the 8:00 ceremonies in the ballroom of the Student Activities Center, the reigning Miss WT — Sandra Skinner — will turn her crown over to some lucky co-ed.

On Saturday, November 2, classes from the past — with particular emphasis on the '25 grads — will have a chance to renew acquaintenances during teas and a luncheon.

After the 1:00 ballgame in Buffalo Bowl, campus sororities and fraternities will host their exes. The evening will be capped with a dance for both former and present students in Amarillo's Holiday Inn.

Profs Certified By Association

Two West Texas State University professors, Drs. Tom Cannon and Brent Lynch, have been named Certified Correctional Workers by the Texas Corrections Association in Austin. They achieved the gold seal designation, which is the highest level of certification.

Recognized for their achievements, they were appointed to this position by the Certification Board, which is made up of officers from state and county correctional, probation/parole and law enforcement offices. Requirements include a minimum of five years experience, district service and a master's degree or higher.

Lynch, an associate professor of political science, brought a highly diversified work experience to West Texas State in 1968. He has served as a consulting geologist, an assistant attorney general and lawyer, and the executive secretary of the Utah Board of pardons. He is now director of Criminal Justice Administration at West Texas State University.

Cannon's professional life is equally as diversified. His occupations range from firefighter and rescueman in Waco, a Lubbock policeman, and chief of the Lubbock Juvenile Probation Office. The associate professor of psychology has been at WTSU since 1969.

Both men reside in Canyon.

AND THE RAINS came, about six inches worth. We seldom get a rain as that one. I never shut all the windows. The rain fell gently, straight down, and slowly. Everything is saturated. Even though the cotton and feed need sunshine, the rain was welcome.

OVER TWO HUNDRED ate barbeque in the school cafeteria on Friday evening of Homecoming. Six states were represented by exes who returned for the event.

The day began with registration at one o'clock. Pat Sims, senior and Student Council president, welcomed everyone to the program at two. He then introduced Lonnie Todd, President of the Ex-Student Association. Lonnie Todd recognized Viola Buchanan as the oldest ex-student present. Mrs. Lola Bowe and Mrs. John Irlbeck were the ones who had educated the most children in the Happy Schools. Several ex teachers were also present.

Lonnie recognized the exes who were from out-of-state and those of the honor classes. He had the third generation family members to stand and then their parents and grandparents.

This time for the first year, a fourth generation was attending the Happy Schools. Mrs. Ona Holland, Gerry (and Evans, who was present later) Holland, Cherie Holland Harvey and Shawna Harvey were presented on stage.

Coach Bill Tennison, now of Anson, was introduced and he in turn introduced those girls who won third place in state in 1964. Those present for the program included Martha Toles Frost of San Jon, New Mex., Irita Bowe Colson, Sharon Johnson Dickens, Alice Womack Middleton, Willa Jane Elliott McManigal, Janie McManigal Hart, Marcelle Irlbeck Shaw, Carol Hardaway McKillip, Jeanne Tirey Johnson and Sara Sims Tirey.

Marcella Shaw was All-State Forward. Alice Womack was All-State Guard. Both stand five foot three inches tall. Martha Toles Frost made All-Regional forward. Martha was changed from a guard to a forward her senior year. Coach Tennison had nothing but praise for his team and for the spirit they displayed. They were not a tall team and Coach Tennison penned this quote on a piece of cardboard and hung it up over the door of the dressing room, "It's not the size of the dog in the fight, but it's the size of the fight in the dog." When they boarded the bus to go to Austin to the state tournament the piece of cardboard was hanging on the rear of the bus.

Coach Tennison stated that he had used this team as an example many, many times. And that when they returned from the state tournament that year, he went up to the gym and thanked God for the privilege of having been the coach of that team.

Homecoming Queen crowned was Valerie Tipps, daughter of Betty and Floyd Tipps. Valerie was escorted by Rocky Williams. Her attendants were Jana Wallace, daughter of Betty and Elburn Wallace, and Gina Luker, daughter of Phyllis and Dub Luker. They were escorted by Johnny Payne and Kyle Todd.

High School students presented a skit narrated by Linda Railsback. Mr. Moudy, school principle was the main participant of the skit. It was extremely humorous. Several students participated.

Coach Vessels introduced the Happy Cowboys and gave their classification, weight and positions on the field. Each walked across the stage and received a miniature football pillow from the cheerleaders. This was followed by a pep rally.

Lonnie Todd, ex-student association president, called the business meeting to order. Maurine Allison, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

The nominating committee submitted the names of Joan and Reed McDonald, for President, Billie and Wayne Pearson for Vice President, and Maurine Allison for Secretary-Treasurer. These officers were elected to serve for 1975 and 1976.

A moment of silence was observed in remembrance of those exes who had passed away during the year. These included Clarence (Benny) Long, Oscar Gunkin, O. M. Cox, Winnie Bryan, Mike Pollard, Ray Jimenez, and Johnny Mann and a teacher David Keel, who taught in 1949.

Among the very early exes introduced were Viola Buchanan, Bertie Culp, Ethel and Homer T. LaRoe. Mildred Devin was master of ceremonies for the program and Barbara Andrews played the piano for the songs of yesteryear. 1920's exes included Ruby Zachary Davis, Catherine Miller, George White, Annie and Bert Lemmons, Anna Mae and Hobart McManigal, Frances Stephenson Hudson, Alice Penn, Beth Fowler Ray, Dora Ratjen, George Uselding, Jeff Whitman and Ernie Miller.

1930 exes introduced included Mildred Holly, Mildred Fields, Juanita and W. T. Robinson, Venita Bowe Partin, Rosetta Merriman Crow Joyce Lane, Verna Merle Knapp Arthur, Buster Dickerson, Mrs. Jack Frost, Lonas Wright, and Roberta Cox, John Toles, and Holland E. Toles.

Exes attending school during the 1940's were Alvin Moudy, C. R. Moats, Dale and Fredda Whitlow, Ethel Claire Raney Burleson, Joann Merriman Davis, Johnny McCarley, June Nix Brown, LaNelle Todd, Maurine Allison, Evelyn Shepherd, Shirley LaRoe, Jerry Ponder Holland, Burl Sims, Jean LaRoe Markham, Jolene Lee, and Mary Del Toles.

1950 ex students included Betty Duncan Wesley, Joan and Pete Odom, Florence and Forrest Bowe of California, Marlin Sluder of Mississippi, Mary Neal and Tom Henry, Charlotte Weaver, Reed and Joan McDonald, Billie and Wayne Pearson, Mona L. Clark, Janie Greenfield, H. J. Greenfield, and Carol Sims.

1960 exes included all the basketball team and Jim McManigal, Ronnie Johnson, Cherie Holland Harvey, Jill and Danny White, Debra Hudson Parker, Pat Sims, and Jill and Danny White.

None of the 1970 exes remained for the program. As Mildred Devins said "You got to get old to come to these things." We who were present thoroughly enjoyed it (if you will permit me a personal opinion.) Thank you, Mildred, for your charm and wit.

MOTHER SPENT THE night with us on Sunday. Monday morning she took a tomato that she picked out of my garden to Wayside and weighed it (and of course, visited). The tomato weighed one pound and nine ounces. She took two, but forgot what the other one weighed. Anyway, I talked her into taking it home with her. I told her she'd have much more fun out of it than we would.

You all eat more beef! Not beef steak tomatoes.

See ya!

PTA Workers Begin Fall At Gene Howe

By TROYCE MULHERIN

GREETINGS AGAIN:

First things first: School is out tomorrow — October 4th — inservice day for our faculty, you know!

TIME FOR THE monthly meetings for the Gene Howe PTA is upon us. First meeting of the year will be this coming Monday evening, October 7th. Parents of students in the Kindergarten classes, first, second and third grades will be welcomed to "Back to School Night" by our PTA president, Ernestine Harp, and by Luther Lawless, the chief at our little school.

Members of the PTA Executive Committee will furnish refreshments which will be served in the various rooms following a general meeting in the cafeteria. 7:30 p.m. is the time for the action.

Do come! This will be a grand time to meet with faculty members and let yourself become acquainted with your child/children's teacher/teachers.

NEXT IMPORTANT PTA Date is October 14th, at which time parents of students in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will be welcomed to the same show, but with different teachers!

There will be no planned program at either of these meetings. Business will be dispatched with certainty and attendees released to visit in their children's various rooms! All are welcome!

AS RELAYED HEREIN before, the Gene Howe PTA is sponsoring a t-shirt/sweatshirt sale to commemorate its tenth birthday. Notices have gone out to parents regarding this matter. For those of you who didn't get a letter (guess who else is included in this category), here's the poop: The t-shirt comes in youth sizes as follows: S(6-8); M(10-12) and L(14-16; Adult t-shirt sizes are as follows: S(34-36); M(38-40) and L(42-44); XL(46 is also available. Prices for the youth sizes is $2.00 and the price for the adult sizes is $2.25. Would advise buying "big."

The short-sleeved sweatshirt comes in the same size as stated above. Price for the youth sweatshirt is $3.00; the price for the adult sweatshirt is $3.50. The t-shirt comes in gold with blue Falcon emblem and Gene Howe Falcon lettering. The sweatshirt is dark blue with a gold Falcon and gold Gene Howe Falcon lettering.

Samples of these shirts can be seen and touched in the display case in the North-South corridor at Gene Howe. Stock up now for Christmas presents! Or, stock up now for warmth this winter! Any questions you may have should be directed to Sarah Edwards at 352-3136, or to yours truly.

HOMEROOM MOMMIES (PROPER persons refer to these helpful ladies as Room Representatives) have been named at Gene Howe. Tonya Holt is room rep. for Mrs. Hollingsworth's morning kindergarten class. Katie Lindsey serves in Mrs. Hollingsworth's afternoon class.

First Grade room mommies are: Frances Cannon in Mrs. Tillinghast's room; Carol Triplett in Mrs. Niemeier's room; and Barbara Wood in Mrs. Layman's room.

Room Mommies in the second grade rooms are: Melba Thompson in Mrs. Stevens' room; Sandy Kozak in Mrs. Roth's room; and Darlene Plank in Mrs. Trew's room.

Room Mommies for the third graders are: Charlotte Kennon in Mrs. Langen's room; Jessie Coronado in Mrs. Mills' room; and Billie Glenn in Mrs. Woodward's room.

Fourth graders will find help given by Linda Ford in Mrs. Ramaeker's room; Virginia Baros in Gloria McGill's room; and Lorain Inman in Jeane Miller's room.

Party time in the fifth grade will find JoDell Walker helping Mrs. Taylor; Annette Reagen helping Mrs. Smith; and Peggy Cranfill helping Cindy Lasell.

Sixth graders get tried and true help from Phyllis Hicks in Mrs. Green's room; Betty Malson in Mr. Dowell's room; Barbara Moreland in Mrs. Shoemaker's room; and Paula Gray in Mrs. Parson's room.

For the new and uninitiated — "party" letters will soon be coming home for your inspection. Whatta mean inspection? Actually, you will have the golden opportunity of signing up to help for various school-sanctioned parties. You will then promptly forget what you signed up for and will later on be much surprised when your room mom calls and solicits your help.

FINALLY RAN DOWN (not literally) our veteran coach, Don Wilcox, for some soccer news. Don and Don Myers are co-coaching the second first and second grade soccer team at Gene Howe. This team has won over Belmar and Western Plateau. The score indicated a tie (the coach said it was a win) in the game with Westlawn.

Team members include Danny Hawkins, Glen Moore, Scott Kozak, Lynn Vanlandingham, Walter Morris, Cody Morris, Don Myers, Scott Boyd, Rod Wilcox, Todd Wilcox, Shawn Bartz, Tad McCoy, Shane Steele, Bryan Rhodes, Darren Coffman, Presley Johnson, Greg Yeager, Brian Scoggins, Rob Bulla, Brent Foster and Chris Baker.

The other first and second grade soccer team has been busy having fun and learning how to play the game under the patient tutorage of Pat Seth, Sarah Edwards and Pat Meier. Games with Whittier and Ridgecrest saw our boys really kicking that ol' ball!

DEN MOTHERS HAVE been named for Pack 130. Sandee Kozak, Charlotte (?) Kennon, Betsy Hughes, Rita Erdman, Jo Bruffett, Evelyn Foster, and Bernice Powers have started their training and retraining. We say retraining 'cause some of the ladies are "leftovers" from last year. (That 'leftover' part is someone else's terminology, not mine, so don't call me about it, please.)

CINDY WILSON HAS been doing quite a bit of hollering around lately. She is directing the fifth grade cheerleaders and having gobs of fun. The fifth grade football boys are being urged on to victory by Devon Marshall, Teresa Polvadore, Susy McNett, Melinda Yarbrough, Judy Nuzum, Rene Judkins, Angie Copeland, Jan Phipps, and Cindy Newkirk.

CLINT CLARK SURE grows yummy corn! The "Thursday Night Gang" sure appreciates his generosity in furnishing those tasty ears for its weekly meetings. Onlyest problem is that Clint hasn't figured out a way to grow corn the year round for their feasting enjoyment. Guy says that last batch (plucked in the dark of the night) was a wee bit tough. Work on this will you, Clint?

Thanks for the use of the hall.

Canyon Native Youth Advisor To Democrats

A Canyon native who's also a student at West Texas State University has been elected to the Youth Advisory Committee to the Texas Democratic Executive Committee.

Terry Jo Reynolds was elected to the post recently as one of two representatives from the 31st Senatorial District to serve on the youth committee. She was also a delegate from Randall County to the state Democratic convention.

Calling herself a conservative Democrat, Miss Reynolds said she may have a hard time putting across her ideas in a youth committee apparently dominated by liberal elements.

Miss Reynolds is temporary secretary of the committee, which meets four times each year.

The Canyon resident became involved in politics in 1972 when she worked on the election campaign of Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

Belva Still Awaiting

By MILDRED TURNER

WELL, BELVA IS still fat and sassy. Meanwhile, we are visiting up a storm. While she is resting, (doctor's orders), I read, write, crochet or swim.

IT WAS COOL and cloudy Saturday and Sunday, but warmed up now so am swimming often. I am really a lady of leisure, basking in the sun and sipping lemonade. It doesn't take long to do the work in the apartment. Belva has friends in the apartments nearby who drop in to see how she is.

J.T. has two cousins here who check regularly on her condition and his sister, Brenda, who is going to college in Clarendon, called yesterday; but a lot of the time it's just Belva and I quietly waiting and visiting. She showed me this little poem which was in her book "Expecting."

Lament?

My figure is gone
My energy, too,
What's an expectant
Mother to do!
I can't tie my shoe,
I can't see my knee,
Oh where is the woman
Who use to be me?

My smocks can't hide
What's bulging inside;
Why must I waddle
Instead of stride?

But no one can know
The joy that I feel,
Just waiting to hear
My baby's first squeal!

THE DAY I left home I received an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Henderson Neese and Mr. and Mrs. William Leonard Lindsey, Sr. to the wedding of their daughter, Sue Ann, and son, William Leonard, Jr., on September twenty eighth. In short, you that know the Lindseys, this is Tim and Lurlie's oldest son, Timmy, by nickname.

THEY HAVE BEEN living near Florence, Alabama for the last few years. They live about forty miles from Lloyd, who lives near Leoma, Tennessee.

G. G. AND SHEREE called last Friday evening (to see if the grandone had arrived) and to report that all is well on the home front. In the meantime, Belva, J.T. and I are visiting like crazy and during the day when J.T. is working, Belva and I have been sewing.

* * *

I HAVE BEEN finishing a baby quilt, ruffled scarves for shelves in the baby's room, a blouse for myself, while Belva made two lovely couch pillows from an old fur coat.

LAST NIGHT WE covered a trash can for the baby's room from the wrappings and cards from her baby shower gifts. It has to be decoupaged yet, but is really cute.

I MAY BE home by the time this is printed and you will be the first to know of the great event. Miss you!

Folks Busy At Siesta

By DORIS McKEE

PUT ON YOUR specks and get comfortable, because it's time to read the latest happenings at Siesta.

I had to make another trip to Lubbock this weekend. My nephew only stayed one week with us for now. There isn't any improvement in my brother-in-law, but they wanted the little one closer to home.

SHARON AND JAMES Jones were in Dallas last weekfor a few days. Sharon was there to see a specialist about her back. After several tests, they think she has some pinches nerves They are to run some more tests here in the next week or so, and then hopefully do something to correct it.

* * *

PECK AND FAYE Risner went to Oklahoma last week. They visited their son and his family in Marietta and then went to the V. A. Hospital in Oklahoma City. Peck was to have a checkup on his ear, but as it turned out, they couldn't get it done at this time. He is supposed to go back sometime toward the end of October.

THE BUSYBODY LADIES had a letter from Brenda Knoll, who recently moved from here to Weatherford, Oklahoma. They are liking Oklahoma o.k. It seems that her husband, Danny had an accident right after they moved. He was putting up a storage building, when the wind caught a piece of the metal and cut his hand pretty bad. Hope it is healing now.

Also Pearl West had a letter this Monday from Brenda. It seems the Knoll's were in Oklahoma City over the weekend and had an auto accident. No one was hurt but the car. I'm not sure but it seems to me, Oklahoma isn't treating the Knolls too well. Better luck in the future.

I JUST LEARNED that Cherry and Jimmy Carter of 100 Loma Linda sold their lot and will be leaving us in the near future. They will be going down east Texas someplace.

TALKED TO KATHY Burgan this week. She has been staying real close to home for a little over a week now. It seems Kira came home from school with the chicken pox. Kathy is trying to get prepared for the other two girls coming down with them before long. Golly, these childhood diseases sure are hard on us parents.

PEARL AND DALE West had some overnight guests this past Friday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Worsham and their son Harley, from Oklahoma City. Mrs. Worsham is Pearl's niece.

THE LADIES AUXILIARY met on Tuesday October 1st at 7:30 p.m. The main topic of conversation was getting the plans laid for the Halloween Carnival. It will be October 31st in the recreation building and will be for the kids in the park and the surrounding area. So make plans now to come on down and have a good time with us.

Birthdays Anniversaries

Birthdays and anniversaries honoring several Canyon folks are listed for October 3-5 by the Canyon High School Band Calendar including the following:

October 3 — Addie Murrell, Chad Weaver, Bob Quiggle, Linda Quiggle, Mike Lovelady, Luray Earle, Brad Martin and Julie Gale Finney, birthdays; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil O'Donald, anniversaries.

October 4 — John Brack, Gerald Wilhelm, Greg Persall, Allen Adams, Don Day, Peggy Tucker, Ann Bowes, Richard Jackson, and Karla Sheffy, birthdays; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gamble and Mr. and Mrs Walter Mathews, anniversaries.

October 5 — Bennie Woods, Susie Henniken, Jamie Davis and Andy Moreland, birthdays.

OH YES, DON'T know how many of you have seen the Fire Truck, but it's all painted and back in the park. It really is a pretty, bright red. Also the signs look real good. We will now try to get our Open House set up in the next few weeks.

* * *

BY THE WAY, Faye Risner said she ran into an ole park tennant Sunday in Gibson's Discount (Amarillo). It was Janie Johnson. She had been to the Happy Homecoming and was on her way back to Enid, Oklahoma where they moved a couple of months ago. She said she would try to come see us the next trip back, for sure.

* * *

WE DO WANT to welcome Mrs. Hugh Rowley, (Uncle Skinney's wife) here to the park. She moved down this past week from Hooker, Oklahoma. Hope you'll like it here.

WAS VISITING WITH Jean Mayfield a few days ago and learned that she bowls on a league for Marty's Steak House. They have a five member team and are doing quite well. They bowl on Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in Western Bowl. Good luck team.

AND NOW FOR the football happenings this week. The fourth grade Kids, Inc. team played Hamlet or was supposed to. The game only lasted about 5 minutes. It seems the coaches, referees and some parents had a different opinion. Mickey Bays plays on this team and all he wanted was just to play a game of football. Better luck next weekend.

The fifth grade team played Eastridge. But once again that ole football was everywhere except where we needed it. Final score 7 to 0 their favor. Tod McKee and Paul Qualls are part of this team. Tod was playing Sunday with a jammed thumb. He jammed it in practice on Thursday. It is still sore but getting better each day. Come on you guys, let's win us a game next Sunday.

The fifth & sixth grades combined team played Canyon II and was defeated by a 38 to 0 score. Roger Robertson, Shannon Jones and Michael Coffalte play on this team. Keep your chins up and better luck next Sunday.

We all want to win, but the fun of the game and the learning of sportsmanship are the great factors.

WELL, THIS PAST Friday yours truly had a birthday. I was 29 one more time. I have decided that if Jack Benny can stay 39 then I'd like to stay at least 16 years younger than him.

A surprise birthday luncheon was held for me on Thursday in the home of Pat Reed. Those attending were Diana Hoffman, Pearl West, Pat Reed, Bryan Buckalew, DeAnn McKee and of course yours truly. Since no one knew my correct age a big question mark candle decorated the cake. A big thanks, gang it was a lovely surprise and I really enjoyed it.

YOU KNOW IT's really nice the way Eunice and Barney Rinehart's kids and grandkids share their weekends with them. This past Sunday their grandson, Tom McWilliams, Jr. and his family came out for lunch and a visit. Later in the afternoon their son Bob came to visit and have a piece of homemade pie with milk. You know families should be close and enjoy each other.

* * *

GUESS I'LL PUT down the pencil for now and sharpen it up for next week. Keep reading.

Thought for this week: "Be a giver, not a receiver; it's very rewarding."

See you.

Doris McKee 655-413

Mike Celey, third grade student at Gene Howe Elementary School, is doing an exercise in math. Math in the third grade at Gene Howe is being taught using individualized instruction. Teachers for the third grade at Gene Howe include Mrs. Ron Mills, Mrs. Phillip Langen and Mrs. Wendell Woodward. Students are using the program both during and before school each day. Volunteers from the Falcon Fan Club, are assisting teachers in this type of study.

Language Students Take Part In Programs

Students from Canyon High School are participating in the Pi Delta Phi sponsored programs on Fridays during the noon hour at the Episcopal Center near the WT campus.

The program, started two years ago, is a society forum for French and Spanish language students. The programs are primarily for college students and faculty but the high school students have been invited to participate.

Approximately 14 second year French students in the class of Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves are attending each week. An additional three to 10 students also attend during the month depending on the lectures. Mrs. Reeves stated that the class does not attend all of the programs because some are above the level of the high school student.

Programs that have been presented include Robert Sawvell, professor at WT, who spoke on his trip to Costa Rica, Mary Gill who prepared food of Latin American countries and students who traveled to Paris relating their experiences.

Future programs include lectures on French impressionists, French probabilist, Existentialism, French music, Spanish music and ballet.

Bible Land Tour Available To All

Mrs. A. K. Goodman of Canyon will serve as a tour guide and enlistment agent for the Canyon area for a 'Bible Lands Tour' to be taken during the winter months.

The tour will encompass Lebanon, Syria, Israel, Jordon and more than 20 major Bible sites such as Cyprus, Jericho, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, and a cruise on the Sea of Galilee.

After travelling to Europe by air, the group will have hotel accommodations on board ship and scheduled daily tours will be by bus.

Rev. and Mrs. Lyman Wood, Rev. and Mrs. Luther Kirk and Rev. and Mrs. Hugh F. Blaylock will be in charge of the tour.

Local residents desiring further information may contact Mrs. Goodman, 655-3412.
